

A CULINARY FAIRYTALE BLIND DATE
CHOOSE YOUR OWN ADVENTURE FOR SDBW
BORN & RAISED TO PAIR WINE

PACIFIC

+
ART OPENINGS, STAGE
PERFORMANCES,
CONCERTS + EDM
SHOWS, AND MORE
EXCITING EVENTS
AROUND TOWN

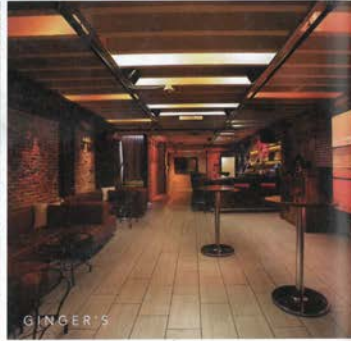

On Fire

10 S.D. CHEFS CALL OUT
THEIR FAVORITE DISHES

NOVEMBER 2017
PACIFICSAN DIEGO.COM

SPONSORED

TOP VENUES FOR PRIVATE EVENTS

GRAND RESTAURANT GROUP

Grand Restaurant Group, led by a team of industry professionals, has opened award-winning businesses throughout California including Bellamy's Restaurant and Nick & G's. Located near downtown Escondido, Bellamys' culinary direction is led by Chef Jonathan Freyberg. They offer a completely private dining space, where up to 30 guests can enjoy the restaurant's French inspired, California-modern cuisine. Nick & G's recently opened in Rancho Santa Fe, offering Mediterranean/Italian-style dining in upscale surroundings. With years of experience in hospitality, Executive Chef Brian Freerksen heads up the kitchen and takes pride in meeting guests' expectations as they walk through the door. The restaurant features three separate and unique event spaces, such as a trellised front porch, main dining room and expansive private back courtyard. Private event dining can be booked through both restaurants' websites.

bellamysdining.com
nickandgs.com

GINGER'S

An underground escape from the active nightlife found in San Diego's Gaslamp District, ginger's is an upscale bar and lounge serving a vast selection of gin and vodka cocktails, along with small plates. Food can also be ordered from barleymash, located just above ginger's. The cozy décor, unique lighting and dynamic atmosphere help to create an intimate private dining and drinking experience.

gingersgaslamp.com

UNION KITCHEN & TAP

A modern American dining destination with locations in both the Gaslamp District and Encinitas, Union Kitchen & Tap offers a variety of private dining spaces suited to large or small-scale parties. The Gaslamp location impressively boasts 7,800 square feet of event space with the capacity to host up to 110 guests, and is ideal for those seeking a trendy atmosphere clad in rustic décor with contemporary elements. Alternatively, the Encinitas location brims with coastal energy blended with modern flair, and offers a private event space that accommodates up to 250 guests.

619-795-9463 | gaslampunion.com
760-230-2337 | locatunion101.com

OSETRA SEAFOOD & STEAKS

If you have developed a taste for the finer things in life, San Diego is the city for you. Home to a culinary scene that is bursting with flavor and flair, America's Finest City has a host of possibilities to offer. Treat yourself to a private dining escape at Osetra Seafood & Steaks, a prominent feature of San Diego's Gaslamp Quarter and one of Southern California's premier destinations for fine dining and nightlife. Promising an upscale, exclusive dining experience like no other, Osetra combines modern flavors with high-end USDA Prime Steaks, Australian and Japanese A9 Wagyu-grade beef, and hand-cut seafood.

Featuring lofty and modern dining spaces, the focal point of this sophisticated eatery is undoubtedly the central three-story wine tower, with each bottle gracefully retrieved by a Wine Angel, clad in wings, floating around the tower in a system of harnesses for a heavenly spectacle. The acclaimed Pacific Private Room, accented with large picture windows that give way to gorgeous views of the Historic Gaslamp Quarter, is the ideal place for a private gathering with an elegant long table for up to 30 seated guests.

619-239-1800 | osetraseafoodandsteaks.com

THE RAIL

A San Diego staple and the oldest known gay bar in the city, The Rail in Hillcrest exudes historical significance. Originally named "The Brass Rail," this iconic hangout has evolved from its first location downtown to their current venue in Hillcrest, after undergoing an extensive remodel. The venue features a rustic, yet modern setting, featuring a welcoming open space, state of the art lighting, a lengthy bar-top with vintage appeal, and a large secluded section fit for a variety of uses including private events, live music and entertainment. Reminiscent of the Prohibition Era, The Rail is a true San Diego landmark.

619-298-2233 | thebrassrailsd.com