

RED, WHITE AND BOOZY COCKTAILS FOR 4TH OF JULY

Ole ‘Merica has been having a rough year. Political battles, environmental upheaval, global unrest, and the rollercoaster of health care are causing the national stress level to reach new heights. This Fourth of July, citizens need a big breather to sip a cocktail, remember why they love the country, and remember all of the veterans who gave their lives for our country’s freedom. (Tip: Get in the spirit by throwing back some cocktails while binge watching AMC’s Turn on Netflix — a show about the Revolutionary War.)

With American pride in check, go hit these San Diego hot spots to show your patriotism with red, white, and blue cocktails.

RED

Damn Skippy 90 Fresh, True North Tavern

Start your Fourth of July by matching the heat outside with a fiery burn inside your throat. In true San Diego spicy style, this cocktail uses Cutwater Spirits Fugu Habanero Vodka with housemade spicy Bloody Mary mix, and is topped with an assortment of treats like sliders, pop tarts, and even fruit rollups. Only in America.
